La France Shoes

The modern woman knows that the supreme touch of distinction is given to her attire by a well dressed foot. She demands Style, Service and Comfort.

Our fine grade Shoes have all these qualities to merit your approval. The dress models in kid and patent leathers are particularly famous for the smart, trim style which they impart to the wearer's foot.

You will find our display larger than past seasons; the styles and materials used are pleasing to the eye, such as gun metal button, kid, cloth top and black Suede. Our flexible welts are very popular and easy to the feet. The new shape heels which are so much in vogue will be found in this display.

The Home Good Shoes

The Homer Fitts Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The latest in cape coats at Fitts'. New fall dress goods at Vaughan's. Norris Hamel has returned to Barre, after passing several days with friends in Underhill and vicinity.

Fred Canton of North Main street has day and to-day, returned home after spending several days in northern New York on business. passing the summer with her parents, Mrs. Harriet Evans, who has been visiting friends on Washington street for Main street, left this morning for North-the past 10 days, returned this forenoon ampton. Mass., where she will enter to her home in Burlington.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Buy your "LaFrance" shoes at Fitts'. New fall novelties, ribbons and ladies' neckwear at Vaughan's. Mrs. Clementina Covell of Northfield was a visitor with Barre friends yester-

Miss Mary Tomasi, who has been Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sanguinetti of North lupon her second year at Smith college.

 Made-to-Measure Clothing!

We have arranged with one of the best tailoring concerns in the country to have a representative at our store on Thursday, Friday, Saturday, October 17, 18 and 19 with a complete line of samples for strictly made-to-measure Suits and Overcoats. If you anticipate a custom suit or overcoat we invite you to meet this gentleman, as he will show you all the up-to-date woolens for fall and winter.

Prices Are Right and a Fit Is Absolutely Guaranteed

Remember the dates, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 17, 18 and 19.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

D. C. Rizzi, Commesso Italiano

BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1914.

The Weather

Fair to-night and probably Wednesday; warmer in the interior to-night, Moderate variable winds,

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sale on toilet goods. Fitta'. New fall wash goods at Vaughan's. Sadlier will re-tire your baby carriage wheels and frame your pictures. Call. We still have some numbers in thin dresses at cost prices. Paris Shirtwaist

A daughter weighing nine pounds was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkie of Central street.

Regular meeting of the ladies' auxiliary of Clan Gordon this (Tuesday) evening at the usual hour.

Miss Edith Connon of Lebanon, N. H is visiting at the home of her mother Mrs. Connon, at 77 Washington street.

N. Louis Schriver of Cambridge Mass Miss W. E. Rowell will hold a specia reduction sale, beginning Wednesday, Sept. 16, and continuing one week. P. E. Russell returned last night to his home at Burlington, after passing t few days in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carpenter and ons, Robert and Newell, of Brandon, arrived in the city yesterday for a brief visit with friends stamped and made-up art goods, are of-fered at Miss Rowell's one-week sale, beginning Wednesday.

James Dunn, who has been passing a week in Barre, left to-day for Rutland Dr. nd Mrs. H. O. Worthen, of Keith to make a visit with friends before re- avenue, turning to his home at Eric, Pa, There will be a meeting of the senior church this evening at 7 o'clock. are requested to bring their office books. Louis Tomasi of North Main street went to-day to Worcester, Mass., where he will enter Worcester Polytechnic institute. Last year he attended the University of Vermont. Arthur Blackmore of Maple avenue who recently completed his duties at the Martin book store, commenced work this

Miss Marion Badger, who has been passing the summer at her home in Walden, returned to Barre yesterday and resumed her studies at Spaulding high school this morning. Among those who registered at the Buzzell hotel yesterday were: Charles T. Gracc, St. Johnsbury; P. E. Russell, Burlington; J. H. Scannell, Hardwick; N. L. Schiver, Boston; J. E. Mallon, Boston; G. H. Stewart, Burlington; G. M. Bart-lett, New York; A. E. Stevens, Law-rence, Mass.; D. M. Foley, Los Angeles,

Miss Mabel Cook and Harry Cook of Westerly, R. I., are passing several days at the home of their uncle, James Abern, of Eastern avenue. Mr. Cook, an instructor at the University of Pittsburg is recuperating from a severe attack of pneumonia, from which he recently

After less than a day's vacation, the auto fire truck at station No. I was back on its emplacement to-day and ready for duty. When the general alarm for the Beckley street fire was sounded yestersome of the mechanics on the regular again last night installing a new radlus rod on the sprocket wheel. Around 10 automobile.

arraigned before Judge H. W. Scott in sociated with the tool sharpeners' union city court yesterday on a charge of for many years. At present he is em-hunting without a license preferred against him by Game Warden Charles William A. Moir is of 35 Currier Keith of North Seminary street. Ventura entered a plea of not guilty and furnished bail in the sum of $50 for his appearance at a hearing to be held on the forenoon of Monday, Sept. 21. Hollister Jackson appeared as his coun-The man was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Keith while the latter was traveling through Berlin last Saturday. He encountered Ventura on the wooded ridge between this city and Montpelier and ook him into custody. Later a comlaint was made to State's Attorney J. Ward Carver and the man was placed under arrest. It is alleged that he cartied a gun for hunting purposes and at he same time failed to produce a li-

The shoe question can be The shoe question can be easily settled so far as style and comfort are concerned, by buying the "Doris" Shoes. Not only are they satisfactory in these respects, but the price is reasonable.

You might pay more, but it is doubtful if you could be better satisfied. We have a big stock in all leathers, in high and low heels.

Price always the same, Union made.

People's Shoe Store, Earre. Vermont

TALK OF THE TOWN

Discount sale at Knight's. New silk waists at Vaughan's. New cloth, plaids and stripes, 25c ard at Fitts'. Our $1.25 gloves for 98c for a few lays, at Vaughan's. Our sale increases every day for Pictorial patterns. Fitts'. A son was born Sunday to Mr. and House, Mrs. James Hogg of Durkee place. Something new in corded crepe waists, white and colors. Paris Shirtwaist

A full stock of Pictorial Review patterns on sale at Martin's Bookstore, Bolster block.

Regular review of Harmon hive, No. 1. L. O. T. M., Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Let there be a large attendance. Miss Edith Connon of Lebanon, N. H. is visiting at the home of her mother,

N. Louis Schriver of Cambridge, Mass., representative of the Swedish Iron & Steel Co. of Brooklyn, N. Y., is passing 10 days in the Barre granite belt. The woman's association of the Con-siness meeting and social in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Persons & Berg will make daily trips ahead-$2.50 round trip. Leave names

Dr. R. C. Worthen of Newton, Mass. arrived in the city last night to make a week's visit at the home of his parents, Hillside avenue returned last night from demand for the permits. Not until the branch of the sodality at St. Monica's East Alburg, where they have been approach of the open season for deer spending the past few weeks at the will the demand assume anything like Sowles camp.

Rev. P. M. McKenna, pastor of St. Monica's church, left this week for Chicago, Ill., where he will visit for the state hunters. The season opens Nov. 10 brother, Rev. Maurice McKenna.

"The Mask of Affliction," a two-reel Eclair drama; also an I. M. P., "Love week at the A. P. Abbott store, succeed- and a Lottery Ticket," featuring Leah Baird and William Shay, at the Bijou. Be sure and see Lucille Love to-mor-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox of Montpelier and Misses Mildred Marcion and Emma Sevegny of this city have gone on an automobile trip to White River Junetion. Before returning they will pass a day at the state fairgrounds. Miss Sevegny is taking a vacation from her duties in the New York bargain house.

Rev. A. Hugh McKe.ma of St. Monica's ened yesterday morning and will be concluded with the observance of mass topriests from many of the surrounding day, the big car was on jacks and the among those who went were several who they should and might. first call came to the borses and the chemical engine. A machinist from the the grounds throughout the four days of county superintendents should set the factory where the car was built and the fair. Many plan to attend the fair machinery in motion to see that the best serves serious consideration. force worked busily during the day and leaving at 6:30 o'clock in the morning, a boarding place for the teacher. In door wide open and bid the teacher wel-sounced fit and ordered into commission parsonage at noon Sunday. Rev. P. M. again. The new rod replaces the original McKenna, pastor of the church, officiated which was found to have been at the marriage. After a brief tour again on Friday afternoon. cracked a few days ago, when an inspect through Vermont and the White mountor from the factory stopped at the sta- tains the couple will make their residence in Barre. The groom is promi-Mario Ventura of North Barre was nently known in Barre, having been as-duties as a draughtsman in the office of ty superintendent to revoke her cer-Waldron Shield, has gone to White Riv- tificate. His decision, however, was in er Junction, where he will have charge favor of the teacher and he notified the of the Moir and Chesser poultry exhibit board that another teacher would not be city of Barro are hereby warned to meet at the state fair. Among other local sent to their district until the best home poultry men who are passing a few was opened to her as a boarding place. days with their exhibits at the fair-ground are John Tassic and E. M. Lyon, John L. Wallace of Franklin street will in regard to her boarding place that she nates to the Democratic county conven be at the fair with his birds to-morrow had no privacy. She had her meals at tion to be held at Montpelier on the 26th and other poultry fanciers from this locality plan to pass a few days at White mother and eight children in the family, River Junction before the fair termi-attendance figures at Washington, so the of ten." Senators claim. In Washington it is said the figures have dropped because ence in one of the southern states rethe government officials are too much ported during the past summer that the interested in the European war.

SPORTING NOTES.

lemon in Felch, the outfielder whom he husband was living with his second wife purchased from Milwaukee for $12,000, and the wife with her second husband. Felch was benched a short time ago by the Milwaukee manager. His place being filled by a recruit.

Band Concert Program Wednesday Night.

March-"Fort Dupont" Allison Overture-"Mirefla" Overture—"Mircha" Myrelles Song—"I Hear You Calling Me" .Marshall Mr. Fisher March-"Manhattan Beach" . Medley-"Remick's Hits" Lampe

The Star Spangled Banner

Granite chapter. No. 26, A. M., this evening at 7 A. C. Tilden, E. H. P. Regular meeting o

Regular convocation of

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

WANTED Later and surrounding towns, desiring to make good money, address Miss M. S. Putnam, 54% Church street, Burlington, Vi. 18588 has opened his office in Howingd building.

DR. A. C. FOSTER DENTIST

Hoom 16. Coll and have your heath examilted.

To have good health, you must have good teeth. All work done without pain.

On Sale Turnday Night at 7 O'clock at Phone 371 Evenings by Appeintment

TALK OF THE TOWN

Ladies' and children's sweaters Vaughan's. "Gossard" corsets, they lace in front;

$2.00 to $8.50 a pair. Fitts'. Pictorial Review and Ladies' Home Journal patterns on sale at Fitts'. Another shipment of front-lace corsets in new fall models. Paris Shirtwaist

Notice: I have moved from 39 Berlin street to 27 Berlin street. Farmers wishing to do business with me should call me by 'phone No. 304-4 between 6 and 8 p. m. G. Aja, Barre, Vt. 250 HUNTING LICENSES

Have Been Taken Out in Barre-Somewhat Fewer Than Last Year.

To-day marked the opening of the 191 hunting season and dawn saw a re spectable showing of hunters hiking fo the woods. Hunting wild game is carried on under the most favorable circumstances until the foliage has disappeared and many nimrods are postponing their trips until later in the month and gregational church will hold its regular early October. But the eager ones and the sporting men who are willing to take sporting chances if only to spend a day in the woods now and then were on to the state fair. Engage your passage the hunting grounds early to-day. The "general exodus of nimrods" chronicle Unusual bargains in embroidery goods, at Laws' fruit store. Leave Barre 6 each year in the weekly papers wil

Thus far upwards of 250 hunting li mses have been issued from the city clerk's office since July 15, when the year officially opens. This number is somewhat smaller than the figures in the same season last year, but the past John Sowles and Oscar Martinson of few days have witnessed an increased a rush on the clerk's office. Then there will be licenses issued a plenty and some of them will be granted to out of the ning three weeks as the guest of his and continues until Dec. 1. Sundays excepted, so for a long time sportsmen will have to content themselves with bagging partridges, gray squirrels and rabbits. Partridges may be hunted from Sept. 15 till Dec. 1, rabbits from Sept. 15 to March 1, gray squirrels from Sept. 15 till Dec. I, snipe and plover until Dec. 1.

THE TEACHER'S BOARDING PLACE. To Hold Good Teachers Provide Them end of the week she had become person-With Proper Places.

this summer the teacher's boarding place was discussed as one of the most perplexing of rural school problems. church went Sunday to Graniteville to often the rural tencher finds it almost participate in the annual forty hours' impossible to secure fit boarding ac-devotions being conducted at St. Syl-vester's church. The services were op-will not stay in a place where boarding will not stay in a place where boarding doubtedly due in part to the fact that morrow morning. The services were in experience required to qualify them for charge of Rev. Joseph Turcot, assisted by village or city school work. As a rule, Only a few Barre people were on the while those not doing so must take the ounds to-day when the Vermont state poorer teachers, with the result that fair opened at White River Junction. At their schools are inefficient and ineffectthe Central Vermont station 12 tickets live and that the children do not acquire for White River Junction were sold and the interest in the school work that county superintendents should set the boarding place is a serious one and deto-morrow, as there is a special train home in their district is obstained for home in the district should throw its A large number will make the trip by order to do her best work and to make come. The best home is none too good the school the vital factor in the com- for the teacher whose heart and soul is o'clock the work was completed and the car was taken up Washington street for a trial spin. The machine was proposed in marriage at the St. Monica church horize town or sity either daily of the teacher whose heart and soul is munity that it should be, the teacher whose heart and soul is munity that it should be a teacher whose heart and soul is munity that it should be a teacher whose heart and soul is munity that it should be a teacher whose heart and soul is munity that it should be a teac Monday morning to return to the city the teacher for the school. Many good states of the middle west the teacher en- would consider it a signal honor to be gaged was unable to find a single fam- diplomatically solicited by the county that would furnish her with board and room. She resigned and contracted Either the best homes must be opened for a school in a neighboring district where she easily secured a good boarding built at public expense for homes for place. The school trustees in the dis-William A. Moir jr., of 35 Currier trict where she resigned preferred street, who is taking a vacation from his charges against her and asked the coun-northwestern states the teacher writes and spent the evening preparing herself for her next day's work in the commo living room. She did not object par ticularly to this, but added "that I do object, however, to sharing at night the The war has had some effect on the common sleeping room with the family

A county superintendent at a confernterested in the European war. only place open as a boarding place for Comiskey may have picked another one of his teachers was a home where the

FOX & EATON, Lessees. JOHN E. HOBAN, Resident Mgr.

Friday Evening, Sept. 18

COHAN AND HARRIS ANNOUNCE THE APPEARANCE IN BARRE OF

GEO. M. COHAN'S

NOVEL, AT THE HANDS OF THE PAMOUS

Original Company FROM THE

On Sale Turnday Night at 7 O'clock, Drown's (Barre) and Buswell's (Montpell

Readjustment Stock Reducing Sale

For one more week, you may select from our entire stock at 20 per cent. off regular prices.

Buy what you need. You get here this week $1.00 worth of goods for 80c. Multiply same by 5 or 10 and note how soon your savings will amount to dol-

Good assortments of Hosiery, Underwear, Blankets, Comfortables, Corsets, Waists, House Dresses, Laces, Ribbons, Infants' Knit Wear, Yarns, Fancy Linens, Gloves and New Fall Suits and Coats await your in-

Remember, sale closes Saturday, Sept. 19.

LET US SHOW YOU-YOU WILL FIND IT PAYS TO TRADE HERE

HENRY W. KNIGHT, Barre, Vt.

in this home were five children from the Eve Has Always Been Proud of Ada father's first marriage, six from the nother's first marriage, and five from There were more seir second marriage. hildren in this home than the theacher had in her school, and while the parents general agreement among the three sets of children. The teacher was forced to esort to the schoolhause for privacy in

A New England teacher reports her chool was to open. She intended to spend one day in arranging for a boarding place; she spent the week, however, The community had many good homes, any of which were willing to keep her for one night, but none of which wanted the teacher as a regular boarder. By the ally acquainted with every family in the community but had not secured a At rural conferences in several states boarding place. She returned to her home and notified the chairman of the school of 'em. I'll bet, when Adam and Eve board that she would report for duty were fired out of Paradise, Eve didn't as soon as word was received from him that a boarding place was arranged for. impossible to secure fit boarding ac Word came promptly. The teacher was unusually successful as a teacher, unconditions are poor; they will stay only she had become personally acquainted until they have attained the teaching with all her school patrons before school

In many instances in all sections of communities which provide congenial liv- the country there is another condition: conditions secure and hold good teachers. A district where some woman of the gosping type wants to board the teacher for the sake of the information concerning the children which a sharp woman of this type is apt to get from her. No prudent teacher will want to live under such conditions

The question of the rural teacher's patrons will refuse an application for In a certain district in one of the board from the teacher herself, who superintendent in behalf of the teacher as boarding places or cottages must be

WARNING DEMOCRATIC CAUCUSES.

The Democratic legal voters of the in city court room on Friday, the 18th day of September, 1914, at 7:30 o'clock In a certain district in one of the in the evening of the said day for the purpose of electing delegates and alteract any other business.

Dated Sept. 15, 1914. GEORGE W. GORMAN. Chairman Democratic City Com. JOE W. JACKSON, Secretary Democratic City Com.

In the September American Magazine Katherine Holland Brown, writing a story entitled "Aunt Jane and the Lion-Tamer," tells about a girl named Elizabeth Ann who marries an adventurous were generally in harmony, there was no fellow, Jerry Ledyard, who takes his bride far away to Ecuador on a business expedition full of risks. Although Elizabeth Ann is as practical and cautions a woman as ever lived, yet she falls right in with Jerry's plans and xperience. She went to the community adores him because he is such a plunger. where she was to teach one week before in other words she is a loyal wife with good sporting qualities. One of the characters in the story puts it this way: "'She dotes on his wild flights, his headlong risks. And she'll back him up, always. She'll brag on him, year in year out. And when he does pull off his big success, she'll say she expected it all the time. She'll stand by Jerry Ledyard until the last horn blows.

"Lots of women are just like that The gritty Aunt Janes-the world is full turn a hair. She knew her Adam was the finest little landscape gardner going He'd plant a garden that would have Eden backed off the map. And it's been the same way ever since

"Look at us, the millions of us men folks, a bunch of commonplace, forked radishes as you'd care to see. Yet some where, for nine out of ten of us, I'll bet there's a woman waiting, a woman who thinks her man is the one glorious, perfeet knight. A woman who believes in him, and boasts of him, and cherishes him through all his blunders and his failures and his sneaky little sins."

Fritz Scheeren, former baseball and football star at Lafavette, has been signed to play with the Pirates.

THEATRE

LOOK!

LOOK!

The Adventures of Kathlyn THE GARDEN OF BRIDES

In two parts. The heroine, lashed to the cage of a hungry tiger in the brigands' camp, makes her escape to meet a worse peril in "The Garden of Brides," surrounded by a horde of

PATHE WEEKLY

News of all the world, including many scenes from the war zone.

Admission Five Cents

Photoplays with Real Merit

Atonement

A story with a moral that you cannot, or ought not, miss; in 2 parts

The Secret Formula

Little Billy's City Cousin It's one of those popular Keystone comedies-You'll laugh, you'll roar, and then some more

MRS. J. NELSON GLIDDEN, Pianist

ADMISSION, 10c

SMALL CHILDREN. 5c

Saturday, September 19

We will make a special showing of Crawford Ranges and Heaters on the above date and invite the public to inspect these goods.

We will give to the ladies a Crawford Salad Plate, Remember the date.

C. W. AVERILL & COMPANY

BARRE, VERMONT